

THREE DEATHS AT THANKSGIVING RACES

GASTON CHEVROLET, EDDIE O'DONNELL AND LYALL JOLLS KILLED AT BEVERLY HILLS COURSE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 26.—Death claimed another of America's greatest speed pilots today when Eddie O'Donnell, with his head crushed, expired in a hospital here. This brought the death toll in the Beverly Hills speedway clash to three.

Gaston Chevrolet, speedway champion of America for 1920, was killed outright. Lyall Jolls, mechanic for O'Donnell was fatally hurt, dying a few minutes after he was hurled over a wall to the ground outside the great wooden saucer.

At an early hour this morning it was believed by physicians in attendance that O'Donnell's condition was improving, but a blood clot evidently formed as a result of a basal fracture of the skull, and he succumbed just before 8 o'clock.

The accident probably was the most spectacular ever seen on a race track in this country. Some 75,000 persons came to their feet, gasping, when the cars of Chevrolet and O'Donnell came together at blinding speed on the 162d lap of the 250 mile dash for the championship of America.

HARDING CONCLUDES INSPECTION OF CANAL

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
BALBOA, Nov. 26.—President-elect Harding concluded his personal investigation of the canal zone today when he returned to Colon. Harding saw the canal as a private citizen. In the same capacity he listened to stories of citizens of the zone and to canal zone officials. As a result, it was expected an investigation of conditions may be ordered when he assumes office.

"PRESIDENT OF IRISH REPUBLIC" ARRESTED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
DUBLIN, Nov. 26.—Swooping down on the leaders of the Sinn Fein movement, British forces today arrested Arthur Griffith, "acting president of the Irish republic," John McNeil, founder of the Irish volunteers, and several other high officials of the republican organization. Griffith was arrested at his home here at 2 a. m. today. The charge against him was not made public.

MISS SINGLETON IS MARRIED

THANKSGIVING WEDDING AT HOME OF THE BRIDE'S PARENTS

RIVERSIDE MAN

C. R. PETERSON, YOUNG BUSINESS MAN, IS THE HAPPY GROOM

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was solemnized at half past eight last evening when Miss Marjorie Singleton, of Glendale, and C. R. Peterson, of Riverside, took the marriage vow at the home of the bride, 318 West Wilson avenue, in the presence of sixty relatives and friends.

Preceding the service Ray Whitehead played "Love's Old Sweet Song" on the violin, accompanied on the piano by his sister, Miss Leila.

The bride and groom entered the parlor to the strains of the Mendelssohn wedding march played by Miss Whitehead. Under a bower of palms and ferns starred with mammoth gold and white chrysanthemums, they were met by the Reverend Hartzell, former pastor of West Glendale M. E. church, now of Los Angeles, who spoke the words that made them man and wife, using the beautiful ring ceremony.

The bride was beautiful in a gown of white crepe meteor with trimmings of georgette crepe and lace. She carried a Bible bound in white, from which fell a shower bouquet of white narcissus. Her veil was caught with the same lovely blossoms. Her only ornament was a handsome string of pearls, the gift of the groom.

Gold and white was the color note in all the appointments of the wedding, even to the great wedding cake which the bride herself cut for the guests.

Immediately after the serving of the wedding collation, Mr. and Mrs.

MASS MEETING

AT HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM TO CONSIDER PAVING OF BRAND

The mass meeting to be held tonight to consider paving portions of Brand boulevard not already paved and taking steps to have the Pacific Electric tracks lowered and the right of way paved will be held in the high school auditorium and not in the city hall.

Estimates of the cost of the work will be given and City Attorney Evans will explain the legal phase of the situation. Every one interested in Glendale is interested in such an important movement as this and it is expected that there will be a big crowd and an interesting discussion of the matter tonight.

In Critical Condition

T. D. Taylor of 426 Piedmont Park who was injured when his automobile turned turtle Tuesday noon at the intersection of Broadway and Verdugo, is still in a critical condition at the Glendale Sanitarium, where he was taken after the accident. It was found that Mr. Taylor was suffering from concussion of the brain as well as having received a broken arm.

Floyd Pease of 234 North Howard street, who was also an occupant of the car, was taken home from the Sanitarium yesterday. He received cuts about the head which necessitated having several stitches put in. He is getting along nicely.

Peterson left for a motor trip to the northern part of the state. The bride's traveling dress was of gray taffeta, with blue coat and hat.

Mrs. Peterson is a graduate of Glendale Union High school and a lady of much charm and sterling qualities of character. She has been teaching in the Willis-Woodbury Business college in Los Angeles.

Mr. Peterson is a popular young business man in Riverside, where he is manager of the Western Motor Car company.

Many gifts of cut-glass, silver and fine linens attested the love of the hosts of friends of the young couple.

THANKSGIVING DAY SERVICES

UNION SERVICES AT THE FIRST M. E. CHURCH VERY LARGELY ATTENDED

COLLECTION $214.63

THE CATHOLIC CHURCH ALSO HOLDS SPECIAL SERVICES—REV. O'NEILL TALKS

Four hundred seventy-five residents of Glendale gathered together in the First M. E. church yesterday morning at ten o'clock for a union thanksgiving service.

Among them were former residents of nearly every state in the Union and a goodly number of former Canadians. Among the smallest representations was that of the state of California, and they were all young people.

The prayer was offered by Reverend C. M. Calderwood, pastor of the Congregational church, who alluded to our especially great reasons for thankfulness this year, and prayed God to give us minds appreciative of our blessings and hearts filled with gratitude toward Him.

Responsive Scripture reading was led by Reverend C. M. Crist, pastor of the First M. E. church.

W. P. Tower, who had suggested the idea of seating the people by former state affiliations, spoke briefly and to the point concerning the advantages of the plan. He said that having lived for forty-two years in one town in New Jersey, and having come here a stranger five years ago, he knew what it meant to come from a place where you knew everyone to a place where you were an entire stranger. He thought that the tie of memories of the old home back East would be a great help.

Aged Lady Called

The angel of Death entered the home of Julius Witkowski, 122 N. Central avenue, on November 23d, and called out of this life Mrs. Witkowski's aged mother, Mrs. Antonino Witkowski.

Mrs. Witkowski was a native of Poland. She had lived in California for five years, and was 82 years of age. The body was shipped to San Diego for interment today by the Pulliam and Kiefer undertaking firm.

Kilborn Back Monday

O. L. Kilborn, of the Evening News staff, is confined to his home because of a minor operation, painful but not serious, which he had to undergo one day early in the week.

Mr. Kilborn is getting along as well as could be expected—and so is The News, for Mr. Kilborn is a walking encyclopedia of Glendale information, and is, without, so patiently generous with those of us newer and less conversant with local affairs that some of us, at least, feel like a cat in a strange garret without his kindly interest and helpfulness. However, he expects to be back at his desk on Monday, so that the "strange-cat" feeling will drop from us, thank goodness, when we cover our typewriters tomorrow evening.

Entertained at Dinner

Mrs. D. W. Cunningham was hostess at a Thanksgiving dinner yesterday at her ranch home, "San Raphael," on West Sixth street, North Glendale.

Marigolds and chrysanthemums were the blossoms chosen by Mrs. Cunningham to adorn her home for the occasion, and give a touch of autumnal color to the elegantly appointed dinner, where places were marked for Mr. and Mrs. Ethan W. Moore, of Benton Harbor, Michigan, Mrs. Anna M. Caney and Bremen Caney, of Casa Verdugo, and the hostess.

Mr. Moore is the editor of the Benton Harbor News, and he and Mrs. Moore are wintering in Pasadena.

Police Didn't Shoot

Police officers who recently responded to a call sent in by Mr. Bishop of 136 North Cedar street wish to correct the impression that they fired a shot through the kitchen partition. They state that Mr. Bishop fired the shot when he thought he heard an intruder in the room, before the call was received by police headquarters.

GLENDALE IS FIRST IN U. S.

TO REACH QUOTA IN RED CROSS MEMBERSHIP ROLL CALL

DRIVE IS STILL ON

LETTER OF CONGRATULATION RECEIVED FROM PACIFIC HEADQUARTERS

Glendale has the habit of being first in everything, so it was to be expected that the local Red Cross Chapter should be the first in the Pacific Division to reach the quota allotted to it in the Fourth Annual Red Cross drive for members. Not only that, but it has been announced that Glendale was the first city in the United States to reach its quota.

When plans for the Roll Call were made Glendale was given a quota of $1000 by Pacific Division headquarters. Local workers voluntarily doubled that amount and set their goal at $2000. At this writing 1881 members have been enrolled and though yesterday was the day set for the close of the drive the work of enrollment is still going on. Subscriptions are being received at the Glendale Savings bank and at the Glendale News office after banking hours.

Mr. McLean, of the Glendale Police force, and Capt. Wm. A. Loving of North Glendale have materials to enroll you, so if you have not yet paid your membership fee and you see either of these gentlemen on the street they will be glad to serve you. These gentlemen and other workers have determined that the $2000 mark shall be reached by Monday.

Mrs. E. W. W. Hayward, Roll Call Chairman, is in receipt of letters from Charles B. Storpe, Associate Director of the Roll Call for the Pacific Division, stating that Glendale is the first Chapter in the Division to reach its quota and expressing his hearty appreciation of the work she and her assistants have done.

At Thornycroft

Thornycroft boys enjoyed a "really, truly" Thanksgiving dinner, with turkey and pies and cranberry sauce and all the other goodies that go to make up the autumn feast day.

Girls from South Pasadena High school came with baskets of fruit and preserves, and the jolly chatter that boys hunger for as much as they hunger for food. Other ladies, too, brought good cheer and fruit and candies and cigarettes.

Five of the boys were guests in Glendale homes yesterday; two were entertained by Mrs. Adelaide H. Imber, 336 West Park avenue, two in the home of Mrs. Don C. Lindley, 336 West Lomita, and one was the guest of Mrs. W. P. Kelly, of 927 Randolph street.

New Trails in Reserve

Two new trails will be started in the Angeles reserve within a month, according to District Ranger H. V. Mendenhall, who is shaping plans for the five winter crews in the big woods. One trail will be built in Bear Canyon which will open up a large fishing country and afford protection of the big watershed in that district. The other trail will be constructed in Santa Anita Canyon, which will add territory for cabin sites as well as afford a route to possible fires in the summer time.

Crews are working on trails in Pleasant View Ridge tract, San Antonio, San Dimas, West Forks and the Arroyo. According to Mr. Mendenhall there is eight inches of snow above the 4000-foot level as result of the recent storms.

Family Celebration

In the Hartley Shaw family the Thanksgiving festival was a genuine old-fashioned family celebration.

To begin with, the young lady of the house, Miss Dorothy, was at home from Pomona College for the holidays, and as dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Shaw entertained a group of relatives including Mrs. Shaw's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. West of Glendale; Mesdames L. L. West, Mary L. Copeland and Miss Margaret West, all of Los Angeles.

In the afternoon the party motored to Hermosa Beach where they were the guests for the afternoon and evening of Mr. Shaw's father and mother.

Twenty-nine cases of traffic violations are set for hearing at two o'clock today in Judge Lowe's court.

A CALL TO PARTY LEADERS

MEETING TO CONSIDER SUCCESSOR TO LATE MR. VAN DE WATER

TO CONSIDER PARTY

PASADENA BANKER, FORMER COLLEGE PRESIDENT, PROPOSED AS CANDIDATE

A request was sent out last Wednesday by Galen H. Welch, chairman of the Republican Congress committee of the Ninth District, to J. A. Alford, of Pomona, George E. Waldo, of Pasadena, W. E. Evans of Glendale, E. C. Denio of Long Beach, and Alfonso Moore of Whittier, asking them to meet at the office of A. L. Bartlett, chairman of the Republican County Central committee, on Saturday at 10 a. m. to prepare a call for an official conference to consider a candidate to fill the vacancy created by the death of Congressman-elect Charles F. Van de Water. The men to whom this call was addressed are all Republican leaders in their respective sections of the district.

Announcement was made Wednesday from Chairman Bartlett's office that a conference for the purpose of endorsing a candidate to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Van de Water's death will be called by the Republican State and County Central committees as soon as suitable arrangements have been made.

Family Reunion

Among the many pleasant family parties on Thanksgiving was one in which Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Parker and their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Lyman, of Santa Barbara, participated.

This family reunion was held at the home of Dr. Lyman's father, E. M. Lyman, in Long Beach.

Covers were laid for twenty-seven and the dinner was all that could be wished, gastronomically and socially.

After the dinner there was a program, and dancing and singing were other diversions of the happy affair.

Entertained in L. A.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Parker of 221 North Central avenue, were guests on Wednesday evening of Mrs. Arthur Skinner and her sister, Mrs. Beatrice Rinestrom, at a dinner at the Alhambra hotel in Los Angeles. Covers were laid for eight.

After the dinner the party attended a dance given by the hotel management to the guests of the hotel and their friends.

Soviet Russia

A number of persons seem to fail to understand why the United States and most of the other governments of the world refuse to recognize soviet Russia. There is no mystery in this if one will stop to think it over for a moment. Russia as now constituted is against every existing form of government, therefore the enemy of the civilization of this era. It is not usual to take enemies into the family, whether that family be official or otherwise.

A writer who has made a close study of the entire situation makes a summary of the situation, as follows:

"The whole conception of property rights, and the laws and government based upon them, has been reversed in soviet Russia. The world does not like this idea; it does not want this idea; it thinks it has discovered as a result of what has happened in Russia that this idea would be bad for the world; that it does not make for happiness, but misery.

"That is why the American government refuses to do business with soviet Russia. Representative government has nothing to do with the matter. The American government can do business with Persia, Afghanistan, or any other nation under the sun in spite of their forms of government provided there be a basis of agreement that the status of things as they have been built up in past centuries of civilization shall not be changed. The United States got along with every nation in the world when it was the only republic in the world."—Bakersfield Californian.

Mrs. E. J. Johnston, of Seattle, arrived in Glendale Sunday and will spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. E. C. Willson, 1131 East Elk street.

ACUTE DILATION OF THE HEART CAUSES DEATH OF REPUBLICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEEMAN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
ARDMORE, Okla., Nov. 26.—Jacob L. Hamon, millionaire oil magnate and Republican national committeeman, died here this morning. Acute dilation of the heart caused death, it was announced. Hamon had been nursing a gun shot wound since last Sunday.

Hamon had said he accidentally shot himself while cleaning a gun. His story was accepted without question until last Monday, when a warrant was issued for the arrest of a woman who had acted as his secretary and bookkeeper for several years. She was charged with shooting him. The woman, whose name is Clara Smith Hamon, has not been located. She obtained the name of Hamon through marriage to a distant relative of the oil king.

HOUSEWARMING

MR. AND MRS. CARD ENTERTAIN ON THANKSGIVING DAY

Yesterday Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Card were hosts at an elegantly appointed Thanksgiving dinner, which was in the nature of a house-warming, since it was the first meal served in their pretty new home.

A fifteen-pound turkey raised by the hostess herself on the Card ranch at Whittier was the piece de resistance, and there were all the other good things that go to make a bounteous, old-fashioned Thanksgiving feast. A large cut-glass vase of pink chrysanthemums graced the center of the table and at the place marked for each lady guest was a corsage bouquet of violets and pink rosebuds.

Guests who enjoyed Mr. and Mrs. Card's hospitality were Messrs. and Mesdames George Wetzel of Denver, Colorado, A. F. Schmidt of Los Angeles, Mrs. Leila Hawkins and Miss Anna Hawkins of Los Angeles, and Paul Davis of Denver.

In the evening the dinner party attended the new Glendale Theatre as a fitting finale of the day's celebration.

To Honor Teacher

Mrs. Hartley Shaw was a guest this afternoon at an "At Home" with which her friend, Miss Bertha Oliver, is entertaining at her home in Los Angeles in honor of Mrs. Margaret L. Frick, a former Los Angeles High school teacher.

Mrs. Shaw anticipated much pleasure in meeting former classmates as well as the honor guest, who was her teacher in the High school.

WISE ONES

SAVE MONEY

THOSE WHO PAY SUBSCRIPTION BY YEAR $1.00

AHEAD
WE ARE THANKFUL

TO THOSE WHO MAKE POSSIBLE A COMMUNITY NEWSPAPER

It has been discovered by many of the subscribers of the Evening News that by paying $5, the amount of a year's subscription in advance, there is a saving of $2.20 per year as against the plan of paying 60 cents per month for 12 months. The man who pays $5.00 per year in advance saves $1.00 per year over the man that pays $1.00 for two months' subscription, and the subscriber who pays in advance saves 60 cents per year as against the one who pays $1.40 for three months, four times a year. Even the subscriber who pays $5.00 in advance for a year's subscription pays 50 cents a year less than the one who pays $2.75 twice a year.

The above explanation gives the reason why so many of the Evening News subscribers pay a full year in advance instead of taxing themselves a high rate of interest by making smaller payments. Long time payments lessen the work in keeping the subscription records to such an extent that the Evening News gains by receiving the long time subscriptions, and is therefore in a position to spend more money in publishing a better community paper. Accept the thanks of the editor for the yearly subscription.

In New Germany

BERLIN. (By Mail).—In connection with its protest against the Entente's demand for delivery of 821,350 milk cows, the German government prepared figures showing Germany had in June of this year, 7,334,418 cows, but estimated their output at ten liters instead of twenty-five, as in pre-war times. The Entente's demand was for the delivery of the above named figure in four years, but Germany contends its milk situation is such that this would bring it to a point where the already high infant mortality would be seriously increased. The cows are demanded by France, Belgium, Serbia and Italy, as repayment for cows taken by the Germans during the war.

Jumped Into a Fortune

BERLIN (By Mail).—Fritz Schaaf, Hotel Adlon page boy, jumped into a fortune. That is literally true. A film company wanted someone who would jump from a tower several hundred feet high into a net. Schaaf, nineteen years old, allowed he was willing to try a "Steve Brodie," especially as there was money in it. He jumped while the movie machine cranked and came out sound except for a wrenched ankle. The money is about the equivalent to an ordinary worker's wage for six years.

Divorces From War Weddings

BERLIN (By Mail).—Sixty per cent of German divorces at this time are of couples wedded during the war. Twenty per cent of all divorces are attributable to war incidents, mainly unfaithfulness during the war.

Statistics also show that many couples during the war and since then are marrying far younger than before the war. Many girls of sixteen are now wives or widows. Fifty-five women and forty-two men are noted over 100 years old, 3600 men and 7300 women over ninety years old.

Black Plague

BERLIN. (By Mail).—Six million persons, or one out of every ten inhabitants in Germany, are afflicted with social disease, according to scientific calculations. Efforts are being made to increase the present laws so as to guard against the spread of this plague.

In some communities, the law requires the registration of all persons so diseased; and it is possible that reformers will undertake to make this a national law. Likewise efforts are being made to alter the present practice whereby a physician is bound to secrecy as to his client's affliction with social disease.

Industry Impaired

CHEMNITZ, Germany, (By Mail).—The German stocking industry, once one of the most flourishing, has fallen on bad times. This is partly attributable to the natural retrogression resulting from the war; partly to exchange questions which make import of raw materials difficult; and partly to the development of the stocking industry in America and the budding development in Australia.

The German plants are casting about to develop "specialties" such as mixed colors, in the hope that they will be able to regain something of their old standing on the world's market.

Counterfeit-Proof Money

BERLIN (By Mail).—Mixture of minute iron and nickel particles in paper money will render it counterfeit-proof, according to the Prague inventor of the process. A magnet will pick up the paper whereas counterfeit paper would not be lifted. The particles must be mixed in during manufacture, hence it is considered doubtful whether counterfeiters could afford to make such stock.

They Got Their Baths

BERLIN (By Mail).—A "Bathing Company, Ltd." has been formed here by a small group. Since one can have hot water in Berlin dwellings only bi-monthly, this group rented a hotel room—the larger hotels have daily hot water—and took turns at the bath. The scheme aroused no suspicion, since the tenant was supposedly a Dutch merchant whose customers were calling on him. The packages they brought along contained towels, brushes and combs.

VICTORY IN SIGHT

The victory over tuberculosis is in sight, according to a bulletin issued by the California Tuberculosis Association calling upon the members to rally to the big drive on the white plague for 1921, which will be conducted with the proceeds from the Christmas Seal sale.

According to the announcement, a decided drop in mortality has been noticed owing to the intensive campaign made possible by the support of the mass of people who purchase the seals. The bulletin, issued by Mrs. Edythe L. M. Tate-Thompson, executive secretary of the California Tuberculosis Association, says, in part:

"The menace of tuberculosis solidified the fight in 1904, when the death rate was over 200 per 100,000 population. In the next ten years the death rate was reduced to 145 and in the following four years the greatest strides in the history of the campaign have been made.

"According to the best available figures, the fight should be entirely won in 1944 and tuberculosis should be a matter of history in this country at that time.

"Unfortunately the great world war and the mal-nutrition of that period has made it necessary to fight all the harder to overcome this formidable adversary, especially in the western sections of the country, which means there must be no weakening in the battle.

"The people of California are evidently alive to the situation and the applications of hundreds of institutions volunteering aid in making the 1920 seal sale the greatest success in its history are pouring in. By stamping their mail with Christmas seals, hundreds of thousands of Californians will enter the battle of health and happiness for future generations. Your aid is secondary only to theirs."

"AIN'T IT THE TRUTH?"

University of Idaho undergraduates make grammatical errors more frequently than they use slang, according to statistics which have just been compiled. Both students and faculty members who committed derelictions were noted during the course of three days which were consecrated to the correct use of English.

"Aint" proved the most prevalent of the many "breaks" which were compiled. Undergraduates were found to use it promiscuously and even faculty members were not immune.

"Gotta" proved the most misused of pronouns; double negatives, plural subjects and singular verbs were only slightly less popular errors than the ubiquitous "aint."

The freshmen outranked other students in making mistakes. Among the 750 mistakes recorded, grammatical errors totaled 390, slang expressions numbered 230 and faulty pronunciations amounted to 150.

Favors Contract Work

Outlining its policy with reference to contract work and day labor on state highway construction the California highway commission has issued the following statement:

In re-establishing active highway construction, the California highway commission will pursue its definite policy of doing work by contract rather than by day labor wherever possible.

The reason for this policy is obvious. The state highway organization is capable of doing twice the volume of contract work that it could under day labor because of the enormous detail imposed by the latter method of operating. Therefore, the commission never undertakes by day labor a job large enough to warrant advertising for contract or where a fair bid is presented.

During the early period of highway construction fully 80 per cent of all work was done under contract. As war conditions developed, the uncertainty in contracting influenced contractors to play safe, and bids were found to be excessively high. The result was that the percentage of day labor work automatically increased until recently the percentage volume of contract to day labor work reached about a fifty-fifty basis. With resumption of active construction under the more normal conditions that seem to be returning, the commission hopes to do less and less day labor work, and more and more contract work.

This statement is in line with a declaration made by N. D. Darlington who is chairman of the California highway commission, to Los Angeles chapter, Associated General Contractors of America, several months ago. At that time Mr. Darlington expressed regret that more contractors did not bid on state highway work and hope that there would be more competition in the future.

Unsettled economic conditions undoubtedly were the chief cause of many contractors refraining from bidding, or bidding high, as stated by the commission. Much can be done, however, to make state highway work more attractive to contractors. This involves certain legislation applying to all public work, which has been outlined by Los Angeles chapter, Associated General Contractors of America, and noted in Southwest Builder and Contractor, issue of November 5, page 11. Support of this proposed legislation by the state highway commission will contribute effectively to carrying out its policy of doing work by contract rather than by day labor as it will greatly encourage contractors, if it is passed, to bid on state highway work.—Southwest Builder and Contractor.

A great writer, and worth every cent of the enormous stipend he receives, is Arthur Brisbane, whose news editorials are a big feature each morning of the Los Angeles Examiner.—Adv.

MUSICAL CENTER

MOVEMENT TO PLACE GLENDALE IN FRONT RANK IN THIS RESPECT

What is said to be the beginning of a movement to make Glendale one of the most important musical centers in the west, has just been inaugurated by the drive for pupils started by the Rector Institute of Music Study, whose Glendale branch is located at the Pearl Keller studios.

This organization is one of the most unique in the field of musical instruction, and though a comparatively new organization in this city, it has already established a reputation for excellence that is unmatched by any institution in the west.

For the past several seasons it has contributed largely to the development of musical appreciation in the other cities where it has been in operation, and its plans for this community include the same plans which have made its work so highly spoken of by musical authorities and music lovers in these other cities.

The managing director, Bernard Rosenthal, states that within a few months it will be possible for him to arrange bookings with musicians of international repute to conduct recitals in Glendale. Already negotiations are under way with several em-

CAT SHOW

MANY ENTRIES IN SILVER SPECIAL EXHIBIT TO OPEN TOMORROW

An event of more than local interest is the Glendale cat show which will open tomorrow at the Glendale Poultry and Pet Stock Exchange. There are about 30 entries from Oakland, Imperial Valley, Santa Barbara, Ventura, Downey, Long Beach and various other cities in Southern California. Tourists in California from New York, New England and Canada have also made entries for the show. There will be about thirty local cats in the show. This is a silver special show and with the exception of three all cats are silver Persians, these three being just common everyday cats of a silver color. One of the three, it is said, promises to be the best cat in the show. Mrs. C. E. S. de Blin of Beresford club, Chicago, will act as judge. Prizes of sterling silver medals, cups, ribbons, and the like will be awarded.

ment pianists, and he hopes to announce the first recital within a very short time.

At these recitals, according to Mr. Rosenthal, all pupils of the Rector Institute have seats reserved for them, and the concerts are made a part of their regular course in musical appreciation. Ordinarily, such a procedure would be out of the question for a school of music, but the plans of the Rector Institute, with its highly efficient organization and unique methods of instruction, have been enabled to adopt curriculums of unusual scope, the details of which are intensely interesting to those who are well versed in music lore.

As soon as the classes have been arranged and the pupils become versed in their work, Mr. Rosenthal promises a pupils' recital which will enable the residents of Glendale to properly appreciate the methods of musical instruction which are revolutionizing many of the fallacious theories commonly associated with the study of music.

WINTER NOVELTY

IS GLOVES, GAY WITH JEWELS OR PAINTED AND BEADED

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—"Throwing down the gauntlet" would be a very expensive pastime this year. A lady would need implicit faith in her cavalier before she would dare throw one of her gloves to the lions, in giving the "dare" to her gallant, and the same lady of medieval days whose "straying" gloves she was always mislaying, would endure a severe memory jog when she received her glove bill.

Much has been said this season about it being "the most ornate year" in the fashion realm. Garment writers have raved full much and well about "the most ornate year" for dresses, suits, wraps, shoes and vanity cases. And now we are awakening to the fact that even the glove which has remained quite stationary for many seasons, is cutting up such festive capers that we must now write about "the most ornate year for gloves."

The highest class specialty shops on Fifth Avenue are really astounding their buying populace by showing them what can be done to a glove. Even one year ago womankind would have giggled at the idea of encasing her hands in silk and skins all bedecked with colored embroidery, painted designs, chenille traceries, and beaded patterns.

But that is exactly what glove departments are showing today. The counters look like suggestions for a period ball, or as if Arthur and His Knights had surrendered their gauntlets to the modern Mlady. For it is the gauntlet cut that has almost supplanted the bona fide glove. Both silks, fabrics and skin gloves employ this spreading cuff to be worn over the dress, suit or coat sleeve. Some of the cuffs are very stiff and unbelted. Others fall in folds from the wrist and use a variety of belts and buckles. Of the former variety, a leading house is showing a pair in very heavy black-cape leather. The cuff spreads, as if stiffly starched, from the wrist and is decorated with a banding in vermilion red. This style jibes well with Peter Pan dresses and Eton suits and is especially for the jeune fille.

The softer suedes and glaze kid are gathered in by contrasting belts. Real jewels are used on the tiny buckles of many of these gloves. These priceless gloves are brought forth only upon request. One house shows upon application a pair of soft white suede gauntlets edged with white sapphires. Another fairly like pair are of taupe kid, belted with very narrow gray squirrel strips and buckled with a tiny jade mosaic.

Other gloves, which are out of the millionaire dollar class and yet which are not exactly proletarian, employ embroidered bandings in silks or beads. A favorite style is the white capeskin gauntlet finished about the cuff with an inch banding of the Swastika pattern embroidered in black silk floss.

Sport gloves of heavy kid or pigskin use novelty wools as linings. Thus, many gauntlets of tan cape are shown lined with a tan angora wool which is gay with tiny figures of various colors. Sometimes the lining protrudes over the cuff for an inch or so.

The Annapolis Hazing

More is involved in the situation at the United States naval academy at Annapolis, where wholesale expulsion of midshipmen is threatened because of hazing, than a mere question of whether or not rough treatment of the lower classmen is to be stopped. More important is the question if discipline is to be maintained.

While something may, perhaps, be said in favor of having a little fun at the newcomers' expense, provided they are done no injury, hazing as it has usually been conducted at the academy and at many colleges is indefensible. But beside the point of the present discussion is the question of whether or not the practice is harmful.

Strict instructions that hazing was to stop were issued by the secretary of the navy. Whether or not that was a good order was not for the midshipmen to ask. It was their duty to obey. As candidates for commissions as naval officers they themselves will be called upon some day to issue orders and they, too, will demand implicit obedience. Indispensable though it is in the navy, discipline cannot be enforced unless there is unquestioned obedience of orders.

Will the midshipmen be fit to govern and give orders to others if they themselves have not learned the lesson of obedience to their superior officers?

Excessive use of the jaw takes a lot of joy out of married life.

JAPS RELY ON SUBS

STRONG NAVAL BASES TO BE CONSTRUCTED ON ISLANDS GIVEN BY CONFERENCE

TOKIO.—(By Mail).—The defense of the outlying portions of the Japanese empire is now occupying both the military and the naval authorities, it having been decided to construct at least ten strongholds at various strategic points.

These will be constructed, of course, in such a way that advantage will be taken of the lessons taught by the war, and whereas the defense of the islands south of Japan proper has heretofore been in charge of the navy department, arrangements have now been made whereby the war department will co-operate therewith.

It is significant that the first move has been taken with regard to the Bonin Islands, and a commission of military officers left a short time ago for these islands in order to make a study of the defense thereof. It must be remembered that the position of Japan, in time of war, is very much like that of England. Both countries depend on imports by sea of food stuffs and raw materials, and the enemy which can stop the sea lanes leading to Japan has that country by the throat, even though not a single soldier be landed.

It is understood that Japan intends to take full advantage of the string of islands placed under her control by the Paris conference, namely Saipan, the Carolines and the Marshalls, which were formerly German, but which are now being Japanized as rapidly as possible, and they will without much doubt be used for the establishment of submarines base, as by this means a string of submarines, of which Japan is now constructing a great number, would form a formidable defense against any fleet approaching from the east.

Great attention is also being paid to the question of mobilization of national industries for war purposes in times of emergencies, a conference in regard thereto having taken place only a few days ago at the official residence of the premier.

A Future Ambition

Messrs. Dempsey and Carpentier, distinguished gentlemen whose claim to fame depends on their fists rather than in their capital equipment, have signed articles for a meeting sometime between March 1st and July 4th of next year. The meeting will be of vast import if we gauge it by the financial interests involved. Mr. Dempsey is the more talented man of the two, if we measure his ability by his wage, for, regardless of the outcome of the fight, he is to get the major portion of the money. A fee of $300,000 for work consuming probably not more than a half hour of his time shows how he rates himself. That his opponent is satisfied with $100,000 less does not prove that he is a "piker" exactly. And there are to be perquisites on the side which are expected to augment the receipts appreciably.

These figures show that the enterprise is one of no small magnitude. Really it is an illustration of big business. Though not stated in the news of the signing of the articles, it is not improbable that Mr. Dempsey is given adequate guarantees that only fists will be used by his opponent, since it is well understood that he has something akin to conscientious scruples against using guns, bayonets and other weapons similar to those resorted to in war.

The traditional goal has been the presidency. It has been heretofore esteemed as topping the highest ambition. It is not improbable that it will lose some of its attraction. To the few that win its honors it comes only with years of effort and those who strive and fail are vastly more numerous than those who realize their ambition. Prize fighting brings not less fame and it may be much more profitable. It requires little mental equipment beyond the ability to abuse one's opponent. Mothers of the future, when they gaze on the sturdy forms of their sons, may hope, not as mothers have done in the past, that their boys would become great preachers, or famous lawyers, or renowned philanthropists, or even president, but that they may develop into prize fighters with a mighty punch and be able to rake in a purse of a few hundred thousands in a part of an afternoon, while at the same time they receive the plaudits of the assembled multitude. It will be a glorious dream for an aspiring mother.

A sound argument does not require as much sound as a weak one.

Even taking folks just as you find them, the old world is not such a bad place after all.

ALASKA WOOD PULP

LATENT INFORMATION ABOUT
THIS IMPORTANT SUBJECT

"A hundred and ten years ago, in Ohio, a school teacher whose pay for a term of six months was 'forty Spanish dollars,' paid, as his journal states, one dime for a sheet of writing paper and one envelope," says Charles H. Shinn, forest examiner. "Naturally, he did not write many letters."

"Two thousand years ago only a wealthy Roman patrician could afford to keep a dozen Greek slaves copying Virgil and Homer so that he might sometimes give 'a book' to a friend."

"Cheap paper and print are essential in these days for human progress. Therefore, the recent visit of Chief Forester Greeley to Alaska is perhaps as important as many things that fill pages in our newspapers. It turns out that our Alaska which we bought for $7,000,000 only fifty-three years ago, has more than 100,000,000 cords of pulp-wood now standing, and can produce 1,500,000 tons of paper annually under scientific forest management. If this hitherto neglected resource of America is vigorously developed, and the cost of paper is brought down to 5 cents a pound or less, no mathematician can estimate what it means to this nation in years to come. Simply in dollars and cents, however, it would pay the total cost of Alaska twenty-one times over every single year for all time to come!"

"Further, as the Journal of Forestry for October tells us, Californians are now constructing the first Alaskan pulp plant at Snettisham, the Alaska Pulp and Paper company. They begin with 100,000,000 feet of pulp wood bought from the forest service. It is also said that there is pulp wood to supply at least six large mills at various points on Puget Sound."

Disappearing Forests

A recent announcement by the Pennsylvania Railroad company that it must seek a foreign supply of cross ties to support its many miles of steel rails is but another indication of the passing of the great American forests. This one railway requires 6,000,000 ties annually for its roadbeds. White oak, from which the best ties are cut, is becoming scarcer every year, and other woods are not suitable.

So the Pennsylvania railroad will seek a new supply of cross ties, either in Central or South America, and this brings us once again to a realization that our own forests, once the greatest in the world, are fast disappearing under the ever-increasing demand of our growing industries. During the war this situation was brought to our attention more than once, when certain woods were needed for carrying out our shipbuilding and airplane construction programs.

The Pennsylvania is only one of the great railroad systems which bind our states into one big union. There are approximately 250,000 miles of railroad in the United States. In every one of these miles about 3500 cross ties are needed.

The vast forests of North America are gradually being used up and efforts so far made to replant them have been on too small a scale to be worth while except as an indication of what can be done through a national reforestation program carried into effect on a huge scale by the federal and state governments.

The Mennonites

Twenty thousand Mennonites, long settled in Manitoba, whose pacifism aroused the wrath of the Canadian people during the war, are preparing to migrate to Minnesota. They are negotiating for the purchase of 171,000 acres of land on which they propose to establish farms. As a result of an investigation of the plan by the state immigration department Governor Burnquist has extended the Mennonites a hearty invitation to make Minnesota their home.

If the United States has a long period of peace the Mennonites will come to be looked upon, despite their refusal to participate in the affairs of the government, as fairly good citizens. In view of their prompt payment of taxes and their obedience to the laws, their unwillingness to have anything to do with the courts, to hold office, or to serve in the militia, probably will be overlooked. They are thrifty, industrious folk, and no doubt will make the wilderness where they propose to settle blossom like the rose.

Let war break out, however, and there is not much reason to believe that the attitude of the Minnesota people toward the Mennonites will be different from that of the Canadians. For the Mennonites are of the most extreme type of conscientious objectors to war. They will not fight under any provocation. Rather than bear arms they will undergo imprisonment or even torture. This has been demonstrated repeatedly during the four centuries of their history. Their pacifism has been the cause of their numerous migrations in every century and in nearly every country in which they have sought refuge. One or two leaders, notably Napoleon, thought it best to grant them immunity from compulsory service.

The United States adopted during the war what was probably the best plan for dealing with these people. The Mennonites and all other conscientious objectors who were drafted were offered the opportunity to engage in non-combatant military service, and if they refused even to wear the uniform were given a further chance to serve the country by working on farms for the pay of a private in the army, the remainder of the wages allowed them by the farmers employing them going to the government. But this system was objected to by many Americans as being too generous.

Not until the problem of the conscientious objector has been solved to the satisfaction of all concerned will the Mennonites be assured of freedom from hostility.

A Great Many More People Will

Spend the Holidays in Glendale

—this year than ever before and there is every indication that there will be 5000 more people who will spend the holidays of 1921 here than there are this year.

A Los Angeles paper in an editorial recently said, "Glendale is having the time of her young life keeping up with herself." And that is exactly our predicament.

If we keep up with our growth in population we must continue our building program on an ever-increasing scale.

We expect to do our part in helping Glendale "keep up with herself." We have a complete organization of architects, engineers and craftsmen of every kind.

COUNTY RANCHERS

ANNUAL MEETING FARM BUREAU
EAU DECEMBER 4, BALDWIN RANCH, ARCADIA

The annual meeting committee of the Los Angeles County Farm Bureau announces that final details for the annual meeting of the organization, consisting of some 2000 farmers, located in all parts of the county, have been completed. The meeting is to be held Saturday, Dec. 4, at the famous Baldwin Ranch at Arcadia. Through the courtesy of Mrs. Anita Baldwin the farm bureau is enabled to use this ranch again as the place of its annual meeting. Farm Bureau members and visitors will remember the splendid meeting held on this beautiful ranch last year. The annual meetings of the various departments of the farm bureau, including the dairymen, the potato growers, and the home department members, have been scheduled for 9:45. At these meetings reports on the work during the past year will be rendered and plans outlined for the coming year's work. The annual meeting of the farm bureau itself is scheduled for 10:45 at which time reports on the work of the organization will be rendered and election of officers for the coming year will be held. At 12:30 there will be a basket luncheon, with coffee served by the farm bureau, following which a splendid speaking program will be provided. President J. B. Valle, who has just completed a two months' trip throughout the east studying farm bureau work over the country at large, investigating particularly the work of the American Farm Bureau Federation, will deliver a report on his trip. Prof. B. H. Crocheron, director of agricultural extension at the State College of Agriculture, and state leader of farm advisors, will make the address of the afternoon. Following the speaking program characteristic demonstrations of farm bureau and agricultural extension service activities during this past year will be conducted, including work with livestock, in the form of milk testing and dairy cow judging. Awarding of medals in the dairy cow competition will be a part of the program. Work with the deciduous fruit growers will be exemplified and inspection of a demonstration plot where three systems of pruning were used this past year. Records of the yields will be available. Farm bureau members are expected to turn out in force at this meeting. Visitors are cordially welcome. The committee in charge of the annual meeting consists of S. Erle Goodell, chairman, and Ed Hall, H. S. Bissell, L. B. Doan and Wm. R. Harrison.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

CALIFORNIA AND THE JAPANESE

At least one thing has been accomplished by the majority given to the Japanese Land Exclusion Act in California; it has convinced the nation and probably the State Department of the fact that Californians are united on the question, says Henry Ford's Dearborn Independent.

There has been a vast amount of propaganda spread in the Middle West and the East by those who were opposed to the passage of this act, and one of the natural results of the circulation of these arguments was the germination of doubt concerning the real sentiment of California. The counting of the votes, however, wipes all this away. For the people of California to have carried the act by a two to one vote would have been amply sufficient to smash all arguments that the movement was a selfish one fostered only by a few interests. But when it is endorsed by a vote which seems likely to be three to one or even better, the remainder of the nation cannot fail to realize that such unanimity cannot exist where a cause is wholly without merit.

At the same time that the people of California were casting their ballots in referendum which resulted in the passage of the new law, the courts of the state declared its legality and the last possible point of weakness in the front presented by the western state was effectively shored up.

The State Department and the nation at large now have something definite upon which to stand in their consideration of the exclusion of Japanese from the ownership of agricultural lands. One, therefore, may look for definite pronouncements in the near future.

VALUE OF ADVERTISING

Advertising enlightens the world. It is educational. It cannot help being so. Its job is to tell the public things it pays to know, says the Ad-Route.

Take talking machines, for instance. They did not mean much in our lives until advertising took hold and showed how they brought new entertainment into the home.

Take automobiles. More than half the average man's knowledge of them and what they will do for him comes straight from the ads.

Take kitchen cabinets, adding machines, ready-made clothing, alarm clocks, health foods, floor varnishes. Take any modern improvement of a standard utility.

Advertising introduced them. Advertising educated us to them. And the man who did not know about talking machines and automobiles and the rest would not be an educated man.

Sometimes advertising is frankly educational, without trying to sell; both sides are finding that advertising is the surest and easiest method of informing the public of their views. Public service corporations have educated the public in many matters of conduct through advertising. Lots of applied patriotism has been taught by the advertising route.

Old Professor Advertising is one of the most learned members of the world's faculty. And he has what some professors don't have—the happy knack of putting his ideas across.

He is at his best when he turns to a practical question of pointing out the merits of an article that people can serve themselves by buying.

People are always interested in themselves. Professor Advertising turns his to good account by showing them how his ware will benefit them.

Some lessons that advertising can teach are big and nation-wide. Nobody can spread them broadcast so quickly as the professor.

Some are smaller and strictly local.

The size makes no difference. Advertising automatically adjusts itself to the size of the job.—Fourth Estate.

AUSTRALIA

Australia faces many unique problems. Of its population of 5,000,000, three-fifths live in the two cities of Sydney and Melbourne. The country is badly governed politically and the full power of the government in any economic activity is apt to be given in support of the voting majority which is concentrated in the cities. This leads to industrial and labor troubles.

Because of the depreciation of the purchasing power of their money and because of the great war debt, France, England, Germany and Italy are cultivating all of their own available land. In addition to this, the French government has offered the five largest wool producers in Australia millions of acres in Morocco, free from rent for ten years, for the development of wool. Already 50,000 head of sheep have left Australia and $250,000,000 of Australian capital have been invested in the wool industry of Morocco.

When the Australian government imports crude oil in order to provide labor for its population, and prohibits the importation of automobile bodies in order to maintain its coach-building industry, it is laying itself open for two things: (1) The collapse of industrialism and the return of agrarianism, and (2) it will lose the confidence and respect of the world and will be shut off from the finance of the world.

Pedro Zamora, the last bandit leader in Mexico, has surrendered, together with 15 followers.

The next eclipse of the sun to be visible in the United States will occur in 1923.

E. O. Excell, noted singer and hymn writer, was recently reported near death. He began life as a bricklayer, but one day Sam Jones, the evangelist, discovered him singing at his work.

The National Guard is to be kept at full strength in peacetime and will be available for minor emergencies according to a statement made by the director of the war plans division of the general staff.

The sardine pack on the Maine coast aggregates 2,500,000 cases worth $15,000,000. About 6000 persons are employed.

Sometimes a man who says he is willing to go fifty-fifty tries to grab at least seventy-five for himself.

A man is willing to accept a distribution of almost anything that is coming to him except retribution.

The man who starts out on a foolish undertaking is just as likely as not to burn his bridges behind him.

Fresh California DATES

FRESH DATES, just packed in the Coachella Valley, California, are an ideal confection. Their flavor far surpasses that of the stale and sticky fruit packed in the far east, with which we have had to content ourselves until very recent years.

Coachella Valley dates are as rich and satisfying as the choicest of sweets and lack the harmful effects of candy—in fact they constitute a nourishing and health-giving food as well as a confection.

Give Coachella Valley dates to the children. They must have sweets and an over-abundance of candy is harmful. They will be delighted with the substitution.

Give Coachella Valley Dates to the invalid who is on a diet. They will take the place of other meats which are denied.

Eat Coachella Valley Dates yourself and serve them to your guests when you wish something particularly choice.

Include a box or two of Coachella Valley Dates in the Christmas box you send your eastern friends. The successful growing of dates in California is so new that they will be enjoyed for their novelty as well as for their delicious flavor.

We have just received a shipment of these fresh dates.

They are packed in attractive boxes and make ideal gifts

The Price of Sound Health

The mere ability to perform your daily work does not indicate necessarily that you are blessed with health. Health, in its fullest sense, means the absolute harmonious functioning of every organ in the body. Health of the right sort makes life a perpetual joy. It makes the mere fact of existence, the very act of breathing, a constant source of pleasure.

Ambition, success, the opportunity to work and accomplish—all the things that make life worth while—these are impossible without health.

HEALTH IS WEALTH—HEALTH IS ALL

The price of sound health is right living. It can be paid for in no other coin. You can neither beg, borrow nor barter it.

If you are not clear eyed, ruddy and strong; if you feel "all fagged out," before the day is over or perhaps before it is fairly begun, something is wrong.

At the Glendale Sanitarium we operate on the theory that you can't get well thinking about your difficulties. You cannot get well doing the very same things and living in the very same atmosphere that produced illness. Medicines never can take the place of nature's own curatives.

You need pure air, rest, proper food, proper exercise, healthful surroundings and simple treatments. The broken in health and body needs regeneration and reconstruction.

help newcomers in getting acquainted at least with those from their old home state, and he urged that all strangers be made to feel at home by the warm welcome Glendale people offered them.

Rev. W. E. Edmonds, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, made a very strong appeal for a generous thanksgiving offering for relief work in the Near East, picturing briefly appalling conditions there among a people whose ancestors were Christians—the separating of families, the degradation of pure young girls in Turkish harems, the hunger of little children. As a result of Reverend Edmonds' earnest plea, the offering amounted to $214.63.

President Wilson's Thanksgiving proclamation was read by Reverend O. P. Rider.

The tenor of the sermon of the day, which was delivered by Dr. V. Hunter Brink, pastor of the Central Methodist church, was in the highest degree optimistic. Dr. Brink holds that the conviction that the world is growing worse cannot come out of a Christian heart; that if we believe in God's ownership and man's stewardship we cannot withhold our time, our money and our energy from the work of making the world better. Those who say that the after-effects of the war, the terrible unrest now prevalent throughout the world prove Christianity to have failed, are wrong; they cannot expect that after four years of hating and fighting man can get back immediately to his normal vision. He emphasized the importance of American leadership in the world today as one of the many reasons we have to be thankful; for American leadership means a leadership of conscience.

The music was furnished by the choir of the Christian church, a choir noted in Glendale for its good voices and musical ability, and this was a feature that added much to the enjoyment of the service. Mrs. H. W. Randall was the organist of the day.

Canada, Iowa, New York and Illinois seemed to be the states making the greatest showing at the service. Other states represented were Pennsylvania, Ohio, Missouri, Kansas, Indiana, New Jersey, Maine, North Dakota, Michigan, Connecticut, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Texas, Kentucky, Nebraska, Massachusetts and Tennessee.

Catholic Services

At the Church of the Holy Family the pastor, Reverend Father James S. O'Neill, offered the holy sacrifice of the Mass in thanksgiving for the blessings God has given since last Thanksgiving Day to the world, the nation, the state, the city of Glendale, and in particular to members of the parish. In his sermon he dwelt upon the beauty of the idea of establishing one day in the year as a day of days upon which people all over the United States are giving thanks to God for His blessings and mercies, as becomes a Christian nation. All over the nation on this morning, he said, His children were gathered together in His name, giving thanks unto the Giver of all gifts, and since a grateful heart is pleasing unto God, these paeons of praise would draw down from on high greater blessings upon the nation.

This readjustment business would make more progress if the other fellows would take the lead.

RUTHLESSNESS

IN DRIVING AUTOS IN BUSINESS

DISTRICT OF GLENDALE

SHOULD CEASE

We all know the old story that tells how the man locked the stable after the horse was stolen, and we think him a great simpleton—all the while following similarly foolish tactics ourselves.

We shall probably tolerate the fast driving of automobiles through the business district of Glendale until some one is run down by one of these reckless drivers; then we'll rise up indignantly and put a stop to the fast driving on our crossings and the reckless turning of corners.

We shall lock the stable after the horse is stolen—like the foolish man in the fable. It's a great price to pay for our easy-going American tolerance of a nuisance that has become a menace—to wait until some one is killed or maimed before we assert ourselves. At present even when the pedestrian plainly has the right of way on a down town street-crossing here, many auto drivers are reluctant to slow down and give him a chance to get by, and not a few absolutely refuse to do it, so it behooves those who walk to keep up their leg-exercises every morning that they may keep their agility in dodging and skipping—unless they choose to go to Heaven by way of the road-hog route.

How about it—shall we continue to let these ruthless drivers put it over on us?
